

Get online with an eCertified® sales professional.

Whether you're buying or selling a home, only an eCertified® Prudential Real Estate professional can provide exposure to 2 million registered Yahoo! Real Estate buyers a month. Plus, when your home is listed for the first time or a price change is made, instant alerts are sent to online buyers who have targeted a home just like yours.

Home shoppers online will receive more complete facts and photos on homes we list, increasing the likelihood of a match. And, to track your sales progress, you'll receive daily activity reports on your home as well as comparable homes listed in your market.

So call today and put an eCertified® Prudential Real Estate professional to work for you.
